2024 Series Overviews

Craving

“Craving” is a three-week sermon series that takes a deeper look at the things students truly crave in their lives. Beyond our temporary wants and desires, we all have deep-seated things that we crave. It can be difficult, especially as a teenager, to identify these, let alone figure out how to satisfy them. This series explores things that we are truly craving for in this life and how to not get lost amidst our temporary wants.

Obsessed

What are you obsessed with right now? Is it your favorite television show? A certain fashion trend? A band? A sport you play? We use the word obsessed a lot. Anything we really enjoy can become our obsession-of-the-moment. And dating definitely falls into that category. For some of us, we’re obsessed with a certain guy or girl we’d like to go out with. Or, we’re obsessed with the person we are currently dating—wanting to spend every minute with them. Or for a huge number of us, we don’t have a crush, but we are obsessed with the idea of dating—we wish we had someone to text with all day and night. No matter what your current relationship status, chances are you spend a lot of time thinking about, talking about, and dreaming about dating. And believe it or not, the Bible has a lot to say about it as well. In this series, we’re going to look at three key passages from Scripture that give us some clues how to enjoy the crazy world of dating without losing our minds.

Grow Up

Do you ever wish you could just grow up? Maybe you yearn for the day you will get your driver’s license. Or graduate from high school. Or go away to college. You don’t really want to be a kid anymore. You want to be seen as an adult. You want to feel like you’ve moved on, grown up. You know how that happens physically, but what about spiritually? How do you know you’re growing in your faith? How do you know that you’re moving forward in that area of your life? The good news is that God is just as passionate about growing your faith as you are. And there are five ways He will use to do that—some involving things that you probably already know, and other ways that you may have never thought about before.

Acts

This series is designed to walk students through the first four chapters of Acts in order to help them see how the movement of Christianity began. They will learn important insights about their own faith in light of how the first followers of Jesus lived.

HABITS

Helping your students develop healthy habits for long-term, independent spiritual growth is the name of the game here. The HABITS Series will bring them into the Word of God and give them tools to keep developing their faith, even after they've left your ministry. The HABITS series outlines six spiritual disciplines for all believers, young and old: hang out time with God, accountability with another believer, Bible memorization, involvement with the church body, tithing and scripture study.

Romans in 5

This series contains 5 lessons from the book of Romans that are designed to connect with both followers of Jesus and those who have yet to follow Him.

In this series, students will learn about:

- 1) Sin and God's gift of eternal life
- 2) How to accept God's gift
- 3) Our continual struggle with sin
- 4) How we take on our new identity as a follower of Jesus
- 5) How we are continually transformed to be more like Jesus

When God is Silent

What do you do when it seems like God has left the building, when your prayers are going unanswered, and when hope is fading? That's the question this series will answer. These 3 sermons tell the story of the prophet Jeremiah at the time of the fall of Jerusalem. After 40 years of ministry, the city he loved was in ruins and his people had been carried into captivity. As he walked the streets of Jerusalem he felt abandoned by God. This is a common feeling for believers today.

O Come

This two-week Christmas series looks at how the people of Israel anxiously awaited the coming Messiah and how we should just as excitedly be waiting for His return.
