Good Morning Fellowship!

Believers have experienced it, the lost are in need of it, many will reject it. What is "it"? The eternal gospel! This morning, we will look at how Saul of Tarsus allowed the eternal gospel to not only save him, but to stir a passion within him to make sure the whole world knew about IT!

George Ohmstede Associate Pastor

The Eternal Gospel in Action: Saul of Tarsus' Journey of Salvation!

Acts 9

Comprehension

- 1. Saul before he professed Christ (1-2)

- 2. Saul's conversion in professing Christ (3-9)

- 3. Saul after he professed Christ (10-31)

Conviction

The eternal Gospel should stir up a passion within the believer to share the good news of Jesus at every opportunity.

Conduct

Put together a plan, practice the plan, put the plan into action!

Practice example of a plan:

Paul's Story:

Acts 9

Personal story:

Who you were before Jesus

How you surrendered to Jesus

Who you are since trusting Jesus

Pathway of scripture:

Romans Road and/or Ephesians 2

Romans 3:10

Romans 3:23

Romans 6:23

Romans 5:8

Romans 10:9-13

Ephesians 2:8-9

Let us be moved with urgency to share the eternal gospel to those around us. Let IT bring truth to the lost and let IT bring power, peace, and poise to the believer!

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study and LIFE Groups:

1. Who was Saul of Tarsus and what did we find him doing in the beginning of Acts 9?
2. How did Saul know to address the voice as Lord?
3. How do we protect ourselves against having the initial attitude of Ananias when we meet a new convert?
4. How did the eternal gospel change Saul? Spend time digging deep here. We know he was saved. How did his salvation change him into who he became?
5. Spend time crafting your personal plan to share the eternal gospel with others. Practice the plan and put it into action!
