Are we, as believers, crazy to think we can truly praise the Lord everywhere and in everything? How about the victories, the defeats, the mountaintops, the valleys, the joy, and the sadness? This morning, we will look at Psalm 150 to answer this question. Just a hing, we are NOT crazy!

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study and LIFE Groups:

1. In your own words, write out and/or discuss what it means to praise the Lord.
2. In what areas of your life do you find it difficult to praise the Lord? Why do you find it difficult?
3. Recall four times in your life when you could not help but Praise the Lord in the following situations: a time of victory, a time of defeat, a time of joy, a time of sadness.
4. Why is it important to praise God with other believers?
5. How can we as believers praise the Lord even when we do not feel like it? Is it even possible? Why or why not?
