Good Morning Fellowship!

How many times have you heard a story and simply thought, this just isn't possible? How did you eventually understand that it was not only possible, but that it truly happened? You listened to the facts. This morning we will investigate Jesus' journey to Bethlehem and look to the prophets who foretold of His coming. I can't wait to worship with you as we realize, "For nothing is impossible with God."

George Ohmstede, Associate Pastor

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study and LIFE Groups:

1. Explain in your own words why prophecy in God's Word is vital to one's overall faith.
2. Write out/discuss how you would use the prophecies mentioned in today's sermon to explain to others the story of Jesus as fact and not fiction.
3. Explore why Gabriel felt it necessary to let Mary know Elizabeth was pregnant.
4. Write out/discuss a "For nothing is impossible with God" moment you have experienced. Use this as a time to thank God for all He has done for you.
5. How will you apply the example of Mary's response as a willing and trusting servant to your everyday life? What makes this difficult at times for you? What plan will you put into practice to help you grow and mature so you, too, may respond in this way more consistently?
