We are joyfully gathering this morning to celebrate the Easter morning reality that Jesus Christ has risen from the grave. Today, we will journey through Luke 24:13-35 and discover how the events of that first Resurrection evening show us the path to personally knowing Jesus today.

So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

Romans 10:17

It is through believing the truth of Scripture that we come to truly know the risen Savior.

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study and LIFE Groups:

1. What did the disciples feel and discuss as they walked, and how does this mirror our responses to disappointment or unanswered prayers?
2. Why do you think the disciples didn't recognize Jesus initially, and what might keep us from recognizing His presence in our everyday lives?
3. As we see Jesus explaining the Scriptures to them before revealing Himself, what does this tell us about the role of God's word in personally knowing Him and building a deeper relationship with Him?
4. How does believing the Scripture and knowing the resurrected Son of God stir us to action and witness?
5. When did you believe in the resurrection of Jesus Christ? How does knowing that He is alive affect the way you live?
