Last week we learned how to fight the good fight of faith, but this morning we're diving into why we fight—unpacking the powerful motivations in 1 Timothy 6:13-16 that fuel our passion to stand firm for Christ. From the Giver of Life to the Sovereign King, discover what drives us to live boldly and faithfully until He returns!

George Ohmstede, Associate Pastor

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study and LIFE Groups:

1. How does recognizing God as the Giver of Life inspire us to fight the good fight of faith? In what ways does Jesus' good confession, as the Giver of Truth, motivate us to stand firm in our faith?
2. How does the command to remain committed until Christ's return shape our daily spiritual battles?
3. What does the certainty of Jesus as our King and Lord provide us in the face of life's challenges?
4. How do the characteristics of God's sovereignty, as described in verse 16, strengthen our resolve to persevere?
5. How can we cultivate a deeper confidence in God's eternal dominion to fuel our faith?
6. How does the conviction of God's majesty influence our motivation to live out our faith boldly?
