Have you ever felt the tension between where you live and where you truly belong? As followers of Christ, our zip code may be on earth, but our citizenship is in heaven. Paul reminds us that the joy of the Christian life comes from living out that heavenly identity right here and now as highlighted in Philippians 3:12-4:3.

Grant Kaul, Pastor

The Earthly Joy of Living as Heavenly Citizens

Philippians: The Journey of Joy in Christ

Philippians 3:12-4:3

How do you know that you are a citizen of heaven?

Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.

John 14:6

How do citizens of heaven manifest the joy of knowing Christ on earth?

1.Grow to fully know Christ

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study, small group Bible studies, and LIFE Groups:

1. How would you describe your current pursuit of knowing Christ? What would one deliberate step of growth look like for you this week?
2. Are you unnecessarily hindered by past failures that produce guilt or by living in the good old days of the past? How can you be undistracted and free from anything that may hinder you from moving forward in your relationship with Jesus Christ?
3. Who are a few of the godly examples you are intentionally learning from, and who might be learning from you? What qualities in others draw you closer to Christ, and how can you pursue those patterns more deliberately?
4. Where might you be absorbing unhealthy influences without realizing it? How are voices from social media, culture, or those who lack biblical wisdom possibly shaping your desires and worldview? What safeguards can help realign your focus?
5. How does remembering that your citizenship is in heaven reshape the way you respond to trials, temptations, or everyday decisions? If someone observed your week, what would they assume is your ultimate allegiance and identity?
6. What does it look like for you to stand firm and pursue unity in your relationships? Is there anyone you need to reconcile with, forgive, or encourage for the sake of Christ's name and the church's witness?
