Have you ever felt stuck in your walk with Christ, as if you're not growing as you had hoped? Whether you feel like you're floundering or flourishing, Philippians 2:12–18 shows us what every believer needs. In this passage, Paul reveals how to live out our faith as those who are united with Christ.

How Then Shall We Live?
Philippians: The Journey of Joy in Christ
Philippians 2:12-18

How then shall we live as people united with the resurrected Lord Jesus Christ?

1. We live with a new priority: Mining the riches of salvation 2:12

2. We live with a new power: Thriving in relationship with God 2:13

"But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me did not prove vain; but I labored even more than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me."

1 Corinthians 15:10

"We proclaim Him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, so that we may present every man complete in Christ. For this purpose also I labor, striving according to His power, which mightily works within me."

Colossians 1:28–29

3. We live with a new purpose: Shining as lights in the world 2:14–18

We shine the light of Christ as we live out our faith in Christ.

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study, small group Bible studies, and LIFE Groups:

1. Paul commands us to “work out” our salvation, not “work for” it. The original word conveys the sense of mining out treasures that are already within. What “treasures of salvation” has God already deposited in your life, and what practices help you draw them out and develop Christlikeness day by day?
2. How can cultivating a holy reverence for God (“fear and trembling”) change the way we approach daily decisions, relationships, or struggles with sin?
3. Philippians 2:13 says God is the one “who is at work in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure.” How have you seen God energize both your desires and your actions in recent months? What would change in your life if you truly trusted that His Spirit is empowering you right now?
4. Why do you think Paul makes such a strong point about doing “all things without grumbling or disputing” (v. 14)? How does complaining damage both our personal witness and the unity of the church?
5. What practical habits help you to “hold fast” to God’s Word so that it fuels your life like a wick fuels a flame? What simple steps can you take this week to deepen your intake and application of Scripture?
6. Paul describes his life as a drink offering poured out for others (vv. 17–18). What does it mean for us to pour out our lives for God’s people joyfully? How can we encourage one another to see sacrificial service as gain, not loss, and the path to true joy?
