Would you like to know the secret for unshakable hope? The answer lies within 1 Peter 1:17-21. This morning, we will unlock this secret and gain deeper understanding of how unshakable hope begins with a reverent fear, a redeeming faith, and a resurrection foundation! I can't wait to worship together!

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study, small group Bible studies, and LIFE Groups:

1. What does “reverent fear” look like in your daily life? How might viewing God as both loving Father and righteous Judge change the way you approach obedience, decisions, or even small habits?

2. From what “meaningless patterns” of your past has Christ redeemed you? Google the lyrics to the old hymn “There is Power in the Blood” and read or sing them. Reflect on the power of Christ’s unblemished and spotless blood and how it washes us white as snow!

3. How do fear (awe/respect) and gratitude for redemption work together in a healthy Christian life? Can you share a time when remembering your redemption helped you overcome temptation or complacency, or when fear of displeasing God motivated positive change?

4. How does the reality of Christ’s resurrection and pre-planned redemption give you “unshakable hope” amid current challenges or uncertainties? In what areas of life do you need to more fully place your confident expectation in God alone?

5. Which of these three aspects —fear, redemption, or hope—resonates most strongly with you right now, and why?
