Once we were not a people, but now we are God's people—called out of darkness and into His marvelous light. Each day we have the opportunity to carry living hope into a hopeless world. This morning, we celebrate what it means to live as People of Living Hope.

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study, small group Bible studies, and LIFE Groups:

1. What are some practical ways you can “proclaim His excellencies” this week—at home, work, school?

2. When fear or anxiety feels overwhelming, how can remembering that God has called you “out of darkness into His marvelous light” bring hope and stability?

3. How can your “darkness to light” testimony offer living hope to someone struggling?

4. Peter reminds us that we have received mercy. How can gratitude influence your interactions with other people this week?
