In a world where compromise is common and convictions are constantly tested, God calls His people to live with clarity, courage, and integrity. This Sunday morning, we will discover, from 1 Peter 2:11–12, how our identity in Christ and our intimacy with the Almighty empower us to live a life of influence that puts God and His gospel on display.

Grant Kaul, Senior Pastor

Living a Life of Integrity and Influence

1 Peter 2:11-12

How do believers live a life of integrity and influence?

1. Remember who you are in Christ 2:11a

2. Reject the fleshly lusts you face 2:11b

*For this is the will of God, your sanctification;
that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, not in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God;...*

1 Thessalonians 4:3-5

3. Reflect the character of God

2:12

Intimacy with the Almighty leads to lives of influence and integrity.

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study, small group Bible studies, and LIFE Groups:

1. In what areas of your life are you most tempted to forget your identity in Christ and instead conform to the world around you?
2. How does your intimacy with God strengthen you to overcome fleshly desires, and what specific step can you take to deepen that relationship this week?
3. How do you typically respond when the Holy Spirit convicts you of sin, and what would it look like to respond more quickly and thoroughly?
4. In what ways are your daily actions either strengthening or weakening your influence for Christ among those who are watching your life?
5. Who is currently observing your life most closely, and how can you intentionally reflect the character of Christ to them in a practical way this week?
