Moments before His death, Jesus cried out, “Tetelestai—It is finished.” But what did He finish, and what does that mean for you? This Resurrection Sunday, we will discover and celebrate the life-changing truth that can transform our lives forever.

Grant Kaul, Senior Pastor

The Life-Changing Truth About “Tetelestai - It is Finished”

John 20:1-10

*Therefore when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, “It is finished!”
(tetelestai) And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.*

John 19:30

Will you believe in Jesus and His declaration of “Tetelestai - It is finished”?

What will you do with the evidence?

*"I am the way, and the truth, and the life;
no one comes to the Father but through Me."*

John 14:6

"...but these have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you may have life in His name."

John 20:31

How well do you see this Easter?

What is your salvation status?

Our response to Christ's resurrection reveals if we have received His "paid in full" salvation.

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study, small group Bible studies, and LIFE Groups:

1. Where do you see yourself in the progression from awareness, to investigation, to belief when it comes to Jesus' finished work? Can you share a key step in your journey?
2. What are some ways people today try to "add to" what Jesus has already finished, and how can you guard your heart against that?
3. How does understanding that your sin has been "paid in full" change the way you deal with guilt, shame, or fear in your daily life?
4. What evidence for the resurrection most strengthens your faith, and how can you use that to encourage or share with others?
5. In what specific area of your life do you need to more fully live in the freedom and confidence of Tetelestai this week?
