When life feels uncertain, where do you turn? When suffering comes, what sustains you? Where does real hope come from? Peter points us to our living hope: Jesus Christ, who is risen and reigning. Because He lives, we have a living hope that sustains us in every season of life.

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study, small group Bible studies, and LIFE Groups:

1. Peter tells us that Jesus suffered “to bring you to God.” When you think about being brought near to God through Christ, what thoughts come to mind?
2. In what ways does 1 Peter 3:18 affect the way you view God’s love, and how might it impact the way you respond to others?
3. How does Christ’s example of suffering encourage you during difficult seasons with hope and faithfulness?
4. How does knowing that Christ’s resurrection defeats every power of darkness give you confidence every day?
