A house can look strong on the outside while serious problems remain hidden beneath the surface until we identify them. That can be true of us, too. What do the pressures of life reveal about us, and how should we respond when faithfulness to Christ becomes difficult? We discover the answers we need as we explore Peter's challenging words in 1 Peter 4:17–19.

Grant Kaul, Senior Pastor

Faithful Living in a Fallen World

1 Peter 4:17-19

How should believers live faithfully in a fallen world?

1. Realize that believers are being assessed

2. Recognize that rejection of the gospel will be addressed

4:17b-18

3. Revitalize our trust in our faithful Creator in doing what is right

4:19

Trusting our faithful Creator produces faithful living in a fallen world.

My personal application of this passage:

Questions for individual study and LIFE Groups:

1. How has a recent trial revealed something about your faith, priorities, or dependence upon God?
2. How has God used a difficult season to deepen your faith or develop Christlike character?
3. How does knowing that God refines His children rather than condemns them change the way you view suffering?
4. How should the certainty of final judgment affect the way we pray for and share Christ with those who reject the gospel?
5. What situation do you need to entrust to your faithful Creator, and what is the next right step He is calling you to take?
